

July 13, 2009

Honorable Robert S. Aram, United States Bankruptcy Judge
United States Bankruptcy Court for The Southern District of New York
One Bowling Green, Room 632
New York, New York 10004

I Sheryl J. Carter at 92 Woolery Lane #2, Dayton Ohio 45415, my phone numbers are (937) 742-7051 home, and cell (937) 352-8072.

I am objecting to Hefli Corporation Thirty-Fourth Omnibus (The Response) and any other Plan of Hefli Corporation. I have mailed in my objection already, but I am being cautious to make sure everything is order correctly. I received this notice from Kutzman Raosen Consultants, 2335 Alaska Avenue, El Segundo CA 90245. In the document Hefli Corporation, and another I received, Hefli is objecting my claim, disallowing the claims for untimely filing of my claims number 16849, 16850, etc.
I never received any forms for Proof of Claim from Hefli Corporation - Kutzman Raosen Consultants until recently when I filed Proof of my claims 4/28/09 + 5/1/09, another one that I answer to in previously letter.
I was always told that I do not have any claims, due to untimely filing for years, and my calls were unanswered. I did not have a computer, nor did I purchase Dayton Daily News or any other news. I rely on the mail, which I would receive delay mail, or not in a timely manner. As I could not file my proof of claims, or I did not have any proof of claims forms mailed to me time goes by, then I continue to be told I did not file in a timely manner.

2 of 2

As for the amount, I think the Courts should take in all information, documents evidence, pain and suffering, plus numbers of years I worked, or would have worked for Delphi Corporation to have an amount to all my claims, if the amounts are too high. I am presently and continue to be with Delphi Corporation, even though I am unemployed at the moment. I did not sign off my rights with Delphi Corporation.

Again I object to Delphi Corporation decision on disallowing and expunge any of my claims against the company.

Sincerely,
Stanley J. Carter
